NEPAL: Police attack journalist during South Asia Games protests

DENMARK

Danish police arrested about 20 people on Wednesday after carrying out raids throughout the country to thwart what they suspected were preparations for an Islamist militant attack, police and security officials said. SOURCE

INDIA

India's Hindu nationalist government on Wednesday won parliamentary approval for a far-reaching citizenship law that critics say undermines the country's secular constitution by excluding Muslims. SOURCE

NEPAL

Police attacked Suman Chapagain, a journalist with Nagarik News while he was reporting on protests at the Dasrath stadium during the 13th South Asian Games (SAG) on December 10, 2019. The International Federation of Journalists (IFJ) and Federation of Nepali Journalists (FNJ) condemn the police violence and urge an investigation into the attack. SOURCE
