

TODAY'S HEADLINES: NOVEMBER 13, 2019

BOLIVIA: State Department warns against travel to Bolivia amid unrest

DENMARK: Denmark temporarily reinstates border controls after shootings, explosions

INDONESIA: Student bomber dies in attack outside police office in Indonesia

UGANDA: Uganda protests continuous gun down of its nationals at Rwanda border points

BOLIVIA

The State Department Tuesday warned Americans not to travel to Bolivia "due to civil unrest" in the South American country days after socialist president Evo Morales was forced to resign amidst accusations of election fraud. SOURCE

DENMARK

Several blasts and shootings around Copenhagen this year have prompted Danish authorities to tighten border controls at the country's crossings with Sweden. SOURCE

INDONESIA

A 24-year-old university student blew himself up outside police headquarters in the Indonesian city of Medan on Wednesday, wounding six people, just a month after an Islamist militant attacked a former security minister. SOURCE

UGANDA

Government of Uganda has protested the continuous killi of its nationals by Rwanda security police at a common shared border. SOURCE