

FAM INTERNATIONAL SECURITY
A Global Risk Mitigation Company

GLOBAL MONITOR

THE LATEST IN GLOBAL SECURITY NEWS

TODAY'S HEADLINES: OCTOBER 07, 2019

BRAZIL: Pensioner Dies After Being Shot by Stray Bullet in Niterói

INDIA: India's Supreme Court halts tree felling for new Mumbai metro

SPAIN: Protests in Spain over Increase in Betting Shops

MALI: Deadly attack on UN peacekeepers in Mali

MEXICO: National Geographic reporter shot while conducting interview in Mexico

BRAZIL

A 71-year-old pensioner was shot dead by a stray bullet in the Fonseca neighborhood of Niterói (Rio Metropolitan Region) on Friday morning, October 4th. SOURCE

INDIA

India's Supreme Court issued a stay order on Monday (Oct 7), halting the cutting of trees in Mumbai for an ambitious subway project that has sparked protests from activists opposed to the felling of some 2,700 trees to build a train parking shed. SOURCE

SPAIN

Thousands of people demonstrated on Sunday in cities across Spain to denounce the rapid increase of gambling and number of betting shops and urged "decent" leisure activities as alternatives. SOURCE

MALI

The peacekeepers were carrying out a security patrol near the town of Aguelhok when the device detonated, spokesman Olivier Salgado said on Facebook. SOURCE

MEXICO

A National Geographic journalist was recovering Saturday after being shot in the leg in Ciudad Juarez, Mexico, while interviewing a purported drug dealer for a story about violence in the border city. SOURCE