

FAM INTERNATIONAL SECURITY
A Global Risk Mitigation Company

GLOBAL MONITOR

THE LATEST IN GLOBAL SECURITY NEWS

TODAY'S HEADLINES: OCTOBER 17, 2019

MEXICO: 15 people killed in shootout in southwestern Mexico

VENEZUELA: Guaidó Says Venezuela Will Continue to Protest - 'Will Not Bend a Knee Before the Regime'

CHINA: Police raid in Mong Kok raises threat of bomb-throwing drones planned for use in protests, as Hong Kong violence escalates

UNITED KINGDOM: Climate-change protesters disrupt London rail services

MEXICO

Fifteen people were killed in a gunfight in the southwestern Mexican state of Guerrero, state public security authorities said late on Tuesday, the second mass killing to rock the country in as many days. SOURCE

VENEZUELA

Venezuelans are now protesting more than ever before, according to a new report by a leading NGO, as National Assembly President Juan Guaidó says Tuesday they have not "bend a knee before the (Maduro) regime". SOURCE

CHINA

Drones and corrosive solution were seized on Tuesday during a police raid on a Mong Kok flat, in what investigators suspected were airborne weapons planned for use against officers in the ongoing protests. SOURCE

UNITED KINGDOM

Climate change activists disrupted rail services in the east of London early on Thursday, sparking a physical confrontation between angry commuters and a protester who had climbed onto the roof of a London Underground train, video on social media

showed. SOURCE