

FAM INTERNATIONAL SECURITY
A Global Risk Mitigation Company

GLOBAL MONITOR

THE LATEST IN GLOBAL SECURITY NEWS

TODAY'S HEADLINES: SEPTEMBER 17, 2019

COLOMBIA: Colombia to strengthen protection for politicians after candidate murders

FRANCE: Doctors, lawyers and pilots protest in Paris over pension reforms

INDIA: Protests Fail to Halt India Airport Privatization

ARGENTINA: Argentina's government reinforces security in Vaca Muerta shale oil zone

COLOMBIA

Colombia will increase protection for political candidates running in October's local and regional elections after the murders of seven aspirants, President Ivan Duque said on Monday. SOURCE

FRANCE

Lawyers in flowing black courtroom gowns, doctors in white coats and uniformed airline pilots marched through Paris on Monday to protest at French President Emmanuel Macron's pension reforms. SOURCE

INDIA

A move to privatize major airports held by the government-owned Airports Authority of India (AAI), which owns around 100 airports, has met with stiff resistance from the many unions representing more than 85,000 airport employees who fear losing their jobs. Union members are protesting the privatization plan under which AAI-owned airports would transfer to private entities. Under the plan, AAI retains a minority stake while Adani owns a majority stake. SOURCE

ARGENTINA

The Argentine government will step up security in the Vaca Muerta oil fields by placing the shale formation under the jurisdiction of the military police, the Ministry of Security said on Monday. SOURCE