

FAM INTERNATIONAL SECURITY
A Global Risk Mitigation Company

GLOBAL MONITOR

THE LATEST IN GLOBAL SECURITY NEWS

TODAY'S HEADLINES: SEPTEMBER 24, 2019

INDONESIA: Indonesia says it has broken up plot to attack police HQ in Jakarta

COLOMBIA: Drivers take over the streets in Colombia

MEXICO: Kidnapped Mexican police commander found beheaded in Cancun

INDONESIA

Indonesian police said today anti-terrorism officers had arrested eight Islamist militants and uncovered bomb-making material suspected of being prepared for an attack on police headquarters in the capital Jakarta. SOURCE

COLOMBIA

This Monday morning Colombia woke up to see some of its main streets in different regions taken by the Colombian Drivers Guild after Hernando Chavez, representative of the organization, called for a national strike demanding to revoke the suspension of thousands of drivers licences, El Espectador reported. SOURCE

MEXICO

The beheaded body of a top law enforcement officer in Mexico was found Sunday -- four days after he was kidnapped, tortured and killed by cartel gunmen in Cancun. SOURCE