

FAM INTERNATIONAL SECURITY
A Global Risk Mitigation Company

GLOBAL MONITOR

THE LATEST IN GLOBAL SECURITY NEWS

TODAY'S HEADLINES: SEPTEMBER 27, 2019

EGYPT: Egypt braces for fresh anti-Sisi protests

CHINA: Hong Kong's leader Carrie Lam trapped as protesters wait outside building

MEXICO: Mexico searches anew for students' remains on fifth anniversary of disappearance

NEW ZEALAND: Thousands in New Zealand start 2nd wave of climate protests

EGYPT

Egypt braced Friday for a second weekend of protests, as anger stemming from economic hardship and alleged top-level corruption threaten to eclipse a long-standing ban on street rallies. SOURCE

CHINA

The city's chief executive was unable to leave the venue for nearly four hours after a meeting with members of the public. SOURCE

MEXICO

Pressure has been growing on Pena Nieto's successor, President Andres Manuel Lopez Obrador, to fulfill his promises to uncover what really happened in a case that many Mexicans link to federal authorities. SOURCE

NEW ZEALAND

Tens of thousands of people marched to New Zealand's Parliament on Friday, launching a second wave of worldwide protests demanding swift action on climate change. SOURCE

